MELANCHOLY SUICIDE.

been brought to the attention of Coroner Keenan, the victim being Henry D. Stevens, a young man twenty-two years of age, who lived with his parents at 143 West Forty-first street. More than a year ago deceased, who was a man of unusual promise, left home with a view of making Kansas, near Kansas City, his future abode. On the 25th day of August last Seevens was amusing himself with a revoler in the rear yard of his house, when in some manner unknown to himself one of the parreis was discharged, the ball taking effect in his left temple, discnarged, the ball taking effect in his left temple, and, passing through the head, escaped near the right eye. The nerves of the eye being severed total loss of sight was the immediate result. Mr. Anson, O. Stevens, father of the autortunate young man, then being in kanasa, brougat hum on to New York as soon as it was practicable to do so, since which time he has been in a despondent stars of mind, caused doubtless by the fact that there seemed to be no hope of regaining his sight. It was in various the parents sought to console him, and about two months ago young Stevens made an attempt upon his life by turning on the gas in his room, from which the air had been studiously excluded, at the same time swallowing a quantity of landamum. Fortunately he was unsuccessful in his purpose, and add not again renew the attempt till are on Tuesday alternoon. At that time he was sitting on a sofa in the parlor near his mother, when he surdenly complained of feding bad, and expressed fears that he was about to die. Mrs. Stevens true to quick him by encouraging words, but after asking his mother to forgive him for any unnocessary trouble he had caused her, he was suitable with cramps and spasms, soon becoming unconscious. Physicians were summoned, but could render to relief, and death followed soon afterwards. Wooster iteach, M. D., made a post-mortem examination, and in the stomach of deceased found a mixture strongly resembling strychnine, and from all the facts and circumstances surrounding the case Dr. Beach is of the common that death resulted from the effects of that poison.

Mr. Anson O. Stevens, father of deceased, stated that he had no strychnine in the house, and where his son could have obtained the poston is a profeund mystery to him. Deceased could not leave the house alone, and consequently did not procure it at a drug store, noless added by a second party. It is possible the deceased may have fad the probant in his possible the deceased may have fad the probant in his possible the deceased may have fad the and, passing through the head, escaped near the
